Erratum

Following publication of this article [1] it has come to our attention that one of the supported grants from the Tri-Service General Hospital was omitted:

“We thank all subjects who participated in the study. This work was supported by grants from the National Defense Medical Center, the Tri-Service General Hospital (TSGH-C103-007-S02), and the Ministry of Science and Technology of Taiwan (MOST 102-2314-B-016-012-), Taiwan. This work was also partly supported by a grant from Taipei Medical University (TMU100-AE3-Y06). The authors thank Ms. Hsin-Yi Tsai for her technical support”.

This should have been presented as: “We thank all subjects who participated in the study. This work was supported by grants from the National Defense Medical Center, the Tri-Service General Hospital (TSGH-C103-007-S02, TSGH-C104-007-007-S02), and the Ministry of Science and Technology of Taiwan (MOST 102-2314-B-016-012-), Taiwan. This work was also partly supported by a grant from Taipei Medical University (TMU100-AE3-Y06). The authors thank Ms. Hsin-Yi Tsai for her technical support”.

The authors would like to sincerely apologize for any inconvenience or confusion this may have caused.
